

O, Sing We a Carol

William Josiah Irons (1812-1883)

Arthur Henry Brown (1830-1926)

1. O, sing we a car - ol all blithe and free, And
 2. For the an - gel's song at the birth of Christ, With
 3. True sag - es were they who to Beth - lehem led, Brought 4. Cannot we make our offer - ings now to Christ's need, When fit for our Christ - mas morn, For the world is as cold as the tid - ings of joy be - gan; And it rang with a glo - ry to frank-in - cense, myrrh, and gold, Which they of - fered to Christ on His His poor all around we see? "In - as - much as to them we have cold can be, Though its Lord on this day was born; Though its God in the highest, And a bro - ther-hood true for man; Yet 'twas win-man - ger bed, With a rev - er - ent love un - told. Yet 'twas win-done the deed," He will say, "Ye have done to Me." He will Lord on this day was born: 'Tis a win - try time for the

 - ter time for rich and poor, When the shep - herds came to the
 - ter time for rich and poor, When the wise men knelt at the say, "Ye have done to Me." 'Tis a win - try time for the rich and poor, And who should be driv'n from a Christ-ian's door? 'Tis a sta-ble door. Yet 'twas win-ter time for the rich and poor, 'Tis a sta-ble door. Yet 'twas win-ter time for the rich and poor, 'Tis a rich and poor, And who should be driv'n from a Christ-ian's door?

Refrain

win - try time for the rich and poor, And who should be driv - en from a Christ-ian's door? And who should be driv'n from a Christ-ian's door?