

The Triumphs of Faith

H. B. Beegle, 1908

William James Kirkpatrick

$\text{♩} = 104$

1. There is a faith sub - lime and grand, Of saints the crown and
 2. Faith led to A - bel's sac - ri - fice, To No - ah's pres - er -
 3. By faith their right - eous deeds were wrought, And king - doms were sub - 4. This faith has feared no storms of wrath The hosts of sin could glo - ry, And thou - sands now at God's right hand, Pro -

 - va - tion; It shone in E - noch's ho - ly life, And
 - ject - ed; This faith great strength from weak - ness brought, And wak - en, Has braved the sword and smiled at death, Tho'

- claim its won - drous sto - ry; A faith that ev - er works by love, A wrought a grand trans - la - tion; It crowned with glo - ry A - bram's brow, Helped from the sword pro - tect - ed; The rag - ing li - ons held in chains, The hat - ed and for - sak - en; Has wak - ened songs in pris - on walls, All liv - ing flame that burn - eth, That keeps in view the crown a - bove, The Ja - cob at Pe - ni - el; Its worth the He - brew child - ren knew, And power of fire sus - pend - ed; It brought the dead to life a - gain, And Sa - tan's darts de - fy - ing, Un - waver - ing stood in judg - ment halls, And faith that o - ver - com - eth.

Refrain

 Dan - iel in his tri - al.
 al - ien ar - mies rend - ed. O for a faith like saints of old, As filled with joy the dy - ing.

told in sac - red sto - ry! 'Twill make us true, and pure, and bold, And take us home to glo - ry.