1. The earth was filled with peace and light, When Christ a - rose; The
2. The tomb was emp - ty where He lay, When Christ a - rose; And 3. The soul of man was born a - new, When Christ a - rose; The hea - vens trem - bled at the sight, When Christ a - rose; The sea re - joiced a - an - gels rolled the stone a - way, When Christ a - rose; A sound of tri - umph cross di - vine ap - peared in view, When Christ a - rose; A glor - ious light from

- long the sands, The ver - nal val - leys clapped their hands, The thrilled the air, The glor - ious tid - ings to de - clare, And hea - ven streamed, And from the cross a rad - iance beamed, For moun-tains sang, and all the lands, When Christ a - rose. there was glad-ness ev - 'ry-where, When Christ a - rose.

ev - 'ry spir - it was re - deemed, When Christ a - rose.
