

Peace Will I Give unto You

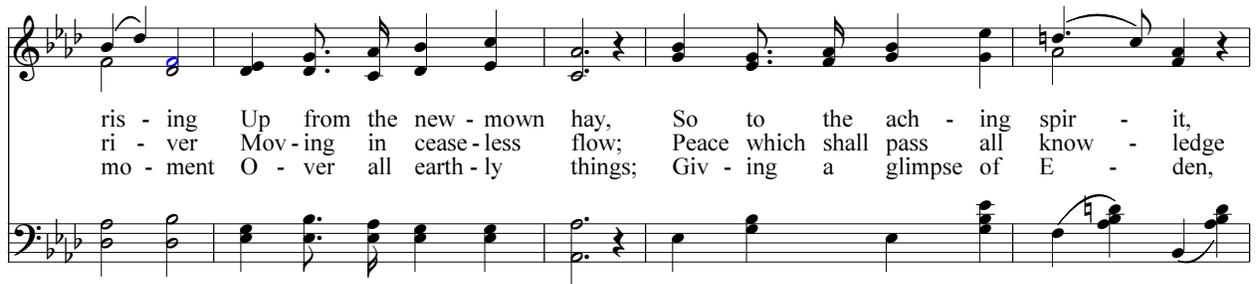

Donald Graul, 1906

Walter Stillman Martin

♩=105

1. Fresh as the dew - drops fall - ing Af - ter the heat of day, Sweet as the per - fume
2. Peace like the calm of even - ing Crowned by the sun - set glow, Peace like a might - y
3. Come, then, O pre - cious Sav - ior, Great peace Thy pre - sence brings, Lift - ing the heart each

ris - ing Up from the new - mown hay, So to the ach - ing spir - it, ri - ver Mov - ing in cease - less flow; Peace which shall pass all know - ledge mo - ment O - ver all earth - ly things; Giv - ing a glimpse of E - den,

Bid - ding its sor - row cease, Com - eth the un - seen Pre - sence, Bear - ing the gift of Peace none may ev - er win Un - til the heart is rea - dy For Christ to en - ter Spir - it of God, O come, Guid - ing thro' life's deep sha - dows, Light - ing our jour - ney peace.

Reefrain

in. "Peace will I give, peace will I give," home. "Peace," Je - sus says, "I will give un - to you. Peace," Je - sus says, " will I give un - to you."

Free as the dew - drops fall - ing, Je - sus His peace will give.