

If I Wait

Katharyn Bacon, 1913

Marvin N. Hardiman

♩=90

1. Hark! the Sav - ior's voice I hear, Call - ing me from de - serts drear, He no
2. End - less life He of - fers me, Sweet sal - va - tion full and free, But I
3. All to Christ I now re - sign, Yield - ing to His will di - vine, I may more may be so near, if I wait; Why should I to - day re - fuse, Or His may not ran - somed be, if I wait; Trust - ing in His right - eous - ness, All my pass the bor - der line, if I wait; The ac - cept - ed time's to - day, And I

Refrain
mer - cies fail to choose? Naught to gain, but all to lose, if I wait. If I sins I will con - fess, Lest it be too late to bless, if I wait. If I now His voice o - bey, Death may bear my soul a - way, if I wait.

wait to seek God's fa - vor, Lost may be my soul for wait but oh! my Sav - ior, to seek God's fa - vor, If I wait to seek God's fa - vor, yes, lost may be aye; Help me yield to Thee to - day!

my soul for aye; oh! help me yield! to Thee to-day!