

About the composer...

Larry Shackley is a full-time composer and editor from Columbia, SC. From 1995-2007, he taught and directed the music program at Columbia International University in Columbia, SC. Prior to that, he worked for several years at the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, creating original music and producing radio programs for the Moody

Broadcasting Network. He has been active in church music since his teens, and served as staff keyboardist for ten years at Willow Creek Community Church in South Barrington, IL. As part of the Willow Creek music team, he played across the United States, as well as the United Kingdom, France, New Zealand, and Australia. Currently, Mr. Shackley is on the staff of Gateway Baptist Church in Irmo, SC.

As an undergraduate, he studied composition with Samuel Adler, Warren Benson and Joseph Schwantner at the Eastman School of Music. Mr. Shackley returned to school in the 1990s, earning his Master in Music and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees in composition from the University of South Carolina. His master's thesis, a concerto for English horn, received its premiere performance in 2006 at the annual convention of the International Double Reed Society.

Composer of over thirty scores for films, videotapes and radio dramas, Mr. Shackley is also an active studio musician, arranger and orchestrator. Over the past several years, he has devoted most of his composing to music for the church, producing over twenty books of keyboard arrangements and more than one hundred choral anthems for numerous publishers. He has won ASCAP standard panel awards every year since 1998, and has received commissions from churches, schools and community choirs across America.

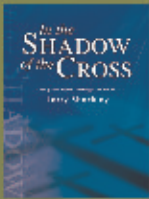

Larry Shackley and his wife, Joni, have four children: Stephanie, Andy, Laurel, and Geoffrey; and one granddaughter, Emily.
