About the arranger

Todd Beaney earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music from Princeton University, a Master of Music in Piano Performance from McNeese State University, and a Master of Music in Jazz and Contemporary Media from the Eastman School of Music. He has taught choral and electronic music for many years at the middle- and high-school levels in Rye, NY and serves as musical director for several musical theater productions each year. He is also the music director and pianist at Wilton Baptist Church in Wilton, CT.

Mr. Beaney has presented sessions at the New York State School Music Association conference and has contributed lessons to both the Music Educators National Conference publications and to the Technology Institute for Music Educators. He is a piano adjudicator for New York State solo festivals, regularly accompanies choral groups for area All-State festivals, and has released four CDs of his instrumental hymn arrangements.
