§ Cantor

1. With sun and moon— and stars, we sing:
2. With stars of heav - en that shine so bright:
3. With dewes and show - ers, let praise rain down:
4. Through fires that crack - le and burn and blaze:
5. With snow and thun - der and rain, we praise:
6. Through clouds and light - nings, your praise re - sounds:
7. With field and for - est, we sing to you:
8. With seas and riv - ers and danc - ing springs:
9. With birds and crea - tures both wild and tame:
10. All men and wom - en, lift up your voice:

Cantor

With day and dark - ness, our praise we bring!
We praise the Mak - er of day and night!
With winds that cir - cle the wide earth 'round:

Let ice and snow - storm sing frost - y praise!
Let hail and wind - storm their voic - es raise:
From hills and moun - tains, the song re - bounds:

With trees and flow - ers of ev - 'ry hue:
With whales and dol - phins and swim - ming things:
A bil - lion voic - es sing out your name:
You ser - vants of our God, re - jice!
