

IN ALL MY VAST CONCERNS WITH THEE

SATB Voices divisi

Psalm 139 Part I
The Psalms of David, 1719
Isaac Watts, 1674–1748

DAYTON
The Brethren's Tune and Hymn Book, 1872
arr. Alice Parker

Slow, lightly flowing, in 1 ♩ = 92

1. In all my vast concerns with thee, In vain my soul would try To shun thy presence,

vain my soul would try To shun thee,

vain my soul would try To shun thy presence,

For rehearsal only

* Accent the first beat throughout, particularly at these appoggiaturas: ♪ ♩.

 No breath

11 S, A

Lord, or flee The no - tice of thine

Lord, or flee, or flee The Lord or flee The no - tice of thine

15 S

eye.

eye. 2. Thy all - sur - round - ing

no - tice of thine eye.

eye. 2. Thy all - sur - round - ing sight sur -

20

mp

My_ ris - ing_ and_ my rest, _____

sight sur - veys My_ ris - ing and my rest, _____

mf

My_ ris - ing_ and_ my rest, _____ My_ veys My_ ris - ing and my rest, _____ My 25

My_ pub - lic_ walks, my pri - vate ways, And

My pub - lic walks, my pri - vate ways And

pub - lic_ walks, my pri - vate ways, And se - crets

pub - lic walks, my pri - vate ways, And se - crets

30

se - crets of my breast. p 3. My thoughts lie se - crets of my breast. mp 3. My thoughts lie o - pen of my breast. 3. My thoughts of my breast.

35

o - pen to the Lord Be - fore they're formed with -
 to the Lord Be - fore they're formed with - in;
 lie o - pen to the Lord,