

Dedicated to the Westminster Williamson Voices, James Jordan, conductor, with gratitude and admiration for the gifts of beauty they share.

WINTER'S COLD

For SATB Voices, Soprano Solo, Piano and Handchimes

Gerald Custer

$\text{♩} = 66$ S Solo mp

Hand Chimes mp A

Piano mp

5
child is born in - to the cold of win - ter's long - est night, no

9
pal - ace warms to wel - come him, no fire - casts its light; yet

A part for Handchimes is available separately from the publisher, G-7024INST.

13

on his head a crown shall ride, though not a crown of gold, for love is born this long-est night of win-ter, in the cold.

18

23

S mf

His new-born hands will one day hold the fu-ture of us

A mf

His new-born hands will one day hold the fu-ture of us

T mf

His new-born hands will one day hold the fu-ture of us

B mf

His new-born hands will one day hold the fu-ture of us

for rehearsal only

27

f all, bear an - gry bite of nails and wood out - side the cit - y mf

f all, bear an - gry bite of nails and wood out - side the cit - y mf 3

f all, bear bite of nails and wood out - side the cit - y mf

f all, bear bite of nails and wood out - side the cit - y mf

31

wall; yet far be - yond the touch of time, his mer - cies shall be (9)

wall; yet far be - yond the touch of time, his mer - cies shall be 3

wall; yet far be - yond the touch of time, his mer - cies shall be

wall; yet far be - yond the touch of time, his mer - cies shall be