

O Light Whose Splendor

1 O Light whose splendor thrills and glad-dens With ra-diance 2 As twi - light hov - ers near at sun-set, And lamps are 3 In all life's bril-liant time - less moments, Let faith - ful bright - er than the sun, Pure gleam of God's un - lit, and chil - dren nod, In eve - ning hymns we voic - es sing Your praise, O Son of God, our end - ing glo - ry, O Je - sus, blest A - noint-ed One; lift our voic - es To Fa - ther, Spir - it, Son: one God.

 Life - be - stow - er, Whose glo - ry light - ens end - less days.
