Day by Day

1 Day by day and with each passing moment, strength I find to meet my trials here; trusting special mercy for each hour; all my

2 Every day the Lord Himself is near me with a cause for worry or for fear. He whose heart is kind beyond all name is Counselor and Power. The protection of His child and me with-in your holy Word. Help me, Lord, when toil and trouble

3 Help me then in every tribulation so to in my Father’s wise bestowment, I’ve no measure gives unto each day what He deems best—loving treasure is a charge that on Him-self He laid: “As your meeting, e’er to take, as from a father’s hand, one by ly, its part of pain and one, the days, the moments pleasure, mingling toil with peace and rest. measure,” this the pledge to me he made. fleeting, till I reach the promised land.