After the Midnight

James Rowe, 1915

Samuel William Beazley

1. After the mid-night, morning will greet us; After the sadness, joy will appear; After the tempest, sunshine will meet us; After the jeering, praise we shall hear.

2. After the battle, peace will be given; After the weeping, song there will be; After the journey there will be heaven, Burdens will fall and we shall be free.

3. Sha-dows and sun-shine all through the story, Tear drops and pleasure, day after day; But when we reach the kingdom of glory, Trials of earth will vanish. After the frown, the soul-cheering smile; Cling to the Savior, love Him forever; All will be well in a little while.

Refrain

After the shadows, there will be sunshine; After the way,

Cling to the Savior, love Him forever;
