1. Tell me, bro - ther, worn and wea-ry, Toil-ing o'er life's path - way dim, Are you
2. Are you watch-ing by the way-side For the faint-ing ones who fall? Do you
3. Have you made a con - se - cra - tion Of your time and earth-ly store? Have you shed - ding light for Je - sus, Are you wit - ness - ing for Him? Are you take them to the Sav - ior, Who has prom - ised rest for all? Do you placed them on the al - tar? Then the Mas - ter asks no more. Thus, O seek - ing for the sin - ners, Those whom Je - sus died to win? Are you love to tell of Je - sus More than all the world be - side? Does it Christ - ian, may we jour - ney, Show - ing forth the Sav - ior's praise, With our point - ing to the fount - ain That can wash a - way their sin? Tell me, bring a heav'n - ly bless - ing With God's peo - ple to a - bide? Tell me, lamps all bright and burn - ing, That the world may catch their rays.

bro - ther, worn and wea - ry, Toil - ing bro - ther, worn and wea - ry, Tell me, bro - ther, worn and wea - ry, Toil - ing o'er life's path - way dim; Are you o'er life's path - way dim, Toil - ing o'er life's path - way dim; Are you shed - ding light for Je - sus? Are you shed - ding light for Je - sus? Are you shed - ding light for Je - sus? Are you wit - ness - ing for Him? wit-ness-ing for Him? Are you wit - ness-ing for Him?
