

Awake! For the Trumpet Is Sounding!

Frances Jane Crosby, 1871

William Fiske Sherwin

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. A - wake! for the trum - pet is sound - ing! A - wake to its call, and o -
2. Then gird on the sword of the Spir - it, With hel - met, and breast - plate, and
3. Then for - ward! O ar - my of Zi - on, With hearts that are loy - al and

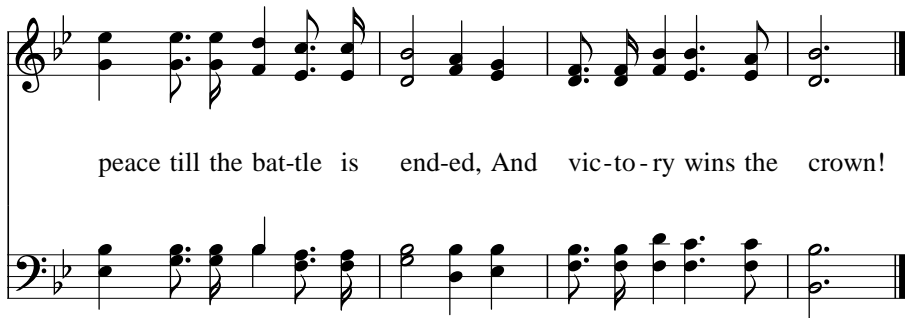

- bey! The voice of our Lead - er cries, "On - ward!" Oh, let us no long - er de - shield; And val - iant - ly fol - low your cap - tain, De - ter - mined you ne - ver will brave! Stand firm by the cross and its ban - ner; And rest in the "Might - y to

Refrain

- lay!
yield! No truce while the foe is un - con - quered; No lay - ing the ar - mor down! No save"!

peace till the bat - tle is end - ed, And vic - to - ry wins the crown!