

Balm in Secret Prayer

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1900

John Robson Sweney

$\text{♩} = 115$

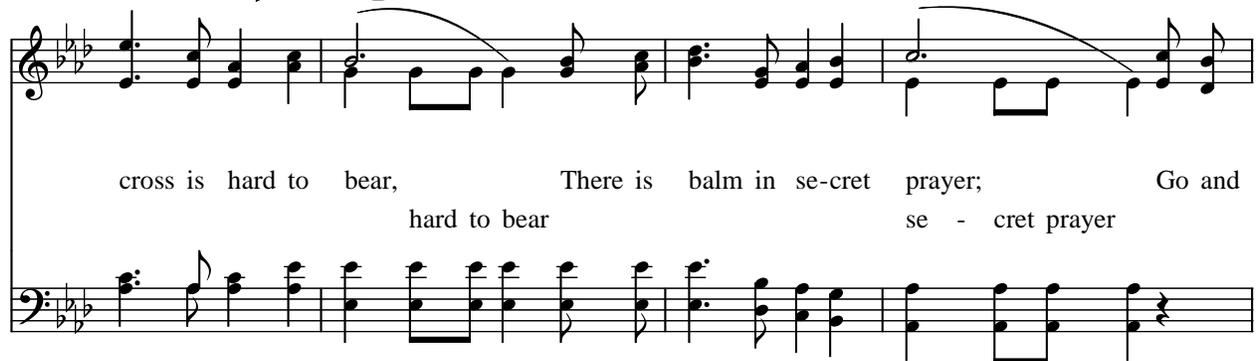

1. Pray on, pray on, O trust - ing heart, Let not thy cour - age fail; But
2. What tho' thy prayers thro' ma - ny tears May reach His throne on high; He
3. Per - haps in some de - spond - ing hour, When hope has well nigh past, The
4. Pray on, pray on, O wear - y not, What - e'er thy tri - al be; But take thy Sav - ior at His word, And know thou shalt pre - vail. knows the an - guish of thy heart, And will not pass thee by. Tho' the light will burst up - on thy soul, And joy be thine at last.

Refrain

lean thy faith on Him Who said, "It shall be well with thee."

cross is hard to bear, There is balm in se - cret prayer; Go and hard to bear se - cret prayer

tell thy sor - rows there, And leave it all with Je - sus.