Builder of Ages
Richard W. Adams, 2004
William Fiske Sherwin, 1877

1. Builder of ages, Planner divine, Drawing the length and breadth of space and time; Yet also Monarch with kingdom to build, And gold-en cap-i-tal still yet un-filled.
2. Surveyor, Architect, Crafts-man sublime, He drew the blueprint ere the start of time, Building with living stones fair temples bright, Fix-ing our hearts in-to His halls of light.
3. First came the Corner-stone, Jesus, our Lord; We hear this hearts and song un-to the sky; Call in My ci-ti-zens, “it can-not fail; As long as you be-lieve, you will pre-vail.”
4. “As you are gathered here, so here am I. Lift up your Christ our King, with spirit-filled: First, we will make a house, do not de-lay; Bring in My king-dom of the per-fect day.”
5. So, in this year to come, we vow to build Two things for fit for a King; And build with-in our-selves hearts fit to sing.
