

By and By

Eben Eugene Rexford, 1871

Philip Paul Bliss

1. By and by we shall know Je - sus, by and by, oh, by and by; E - ven
2. By and by we shall be stand - ing, by and by, oh, by and by, At fair
3. By and by! we say it gent - ly, look - ing on our peace - ful dead, And we Oh by and by, oh sing it soft - ly, Think - ing not of earth - ly care, But the now He looks and sees us, journey - ing toward His home on high. And He heav - en's shin - ing land - ing, while the riv - er mur - murs by, And our do not think of earth life, but of Heaven's sweet life in - stead. By and by and by of Heav - en Wait - ing for us o - ver there.

smiles up - on us, say - ing, "By and by, oh, by and by, Cares and friends will round us ga - ther, by and by, oh, by and by, Say - ing the by we all shall ga - ther, by and by, oh, by and by, In the tri - als you'll be lay - ing with your earth - ly gar - ments by."

"Wel - come, for the Fa - ther loves to have His child - ren with."
life of God our Fa - ther that shall know no by and by.

Fine

D.C. al Fine