

Calling Thee

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1918

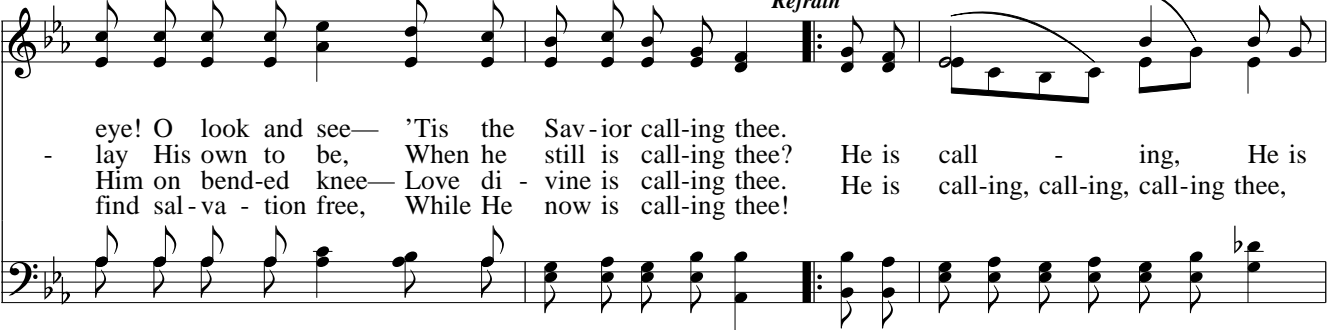

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

$\text{♩} = 102$

1. Say, what mean thy tears that start, Wear - y child with brok-en heart? Lift thine
2. He has called and sought thee long; Leave the gay and care-less throng; Why de-
3. Dost thou on His name be - lieve? Pard'n-ing grace wouldst thou re - ceive? Plead with
4. At the cross where once He died, At the fount He o - pened wide, Seek and eye! O look and see— 'Tis the Sav-ior call-ing thee.

Refrain

- lay His own to be, When he still is call-ing thee? He is call - ing, He is Him on bend-ed knee— Love di - vine is call-ing thee. He is call-ing, call-ing, call-ing thee, find sal - va - tion free, While He now is call-ing thee!

1. call-ing, call-ing thee, Lift thine eyes! O look and see, 'Tis the Sav-ior call-ing thee! 'Tis the call - ing,

2.

Sav-ior call-ing, call-ing, call-ing thee!
call - ing, call-ing thee

