

Chistmas Morning

J. C. Johnson, 1864

William Oscar Perkins

$\text{♩} = 102$

1. We wish you all a hap - py day, This beau - ti - ful Christ - mas
 2. A mer - ry Christ - mas to you all, This beau - ti - ful Christ - mas
 3. On Beth - l'hem's plains the shep - herds watched, One beau - ti - ful Christ - mas
 4. On Beth - l'hem's plains we can - not lie, This beau - ti - ful Christ - mas morn - ing! So bright - ly shines the sun's clear ray, This beau - ti - ful Christ - mas morn - ing! "Good will to men," the an - gels' call, One beau - ti - ful Christ - mas morn - ing! Where si - lent lay the slum - b'ring flock, That beau - ti - ful Christ - mas morn - ing! Nor view the an - gel host on high, This beau - ti - ful Christ - mas morn - ing! For this was the morn when the Day Star rose, To morn - ing! And who should be mer - ry and glad to - day, But morn - ing! When sud - den - ly all the bright an - gel thron Sang morn - ing! But joy - ful - ly we our sweet off - ring bring, Of light the way from all our woes, And heav - en - ly light and those whose guilt is washed a - way? With plea - sure, we hail thy in the sky, their Christ - mas song, Sang "Glo - ry to God, good praise, to hail the new - born king, In Beth - le - hem born, His joy dis-close, One beau-ti - ful Christ-mas morn-ing. peace-ful ray, O beau-ti - ful Christ-mas morn-ing. will to men!" That beau-ti - ful Christ-mas morn-ing.

praise we sing, This beau-ti - ful Christ-mas morn-ing.