

Come to Him Now

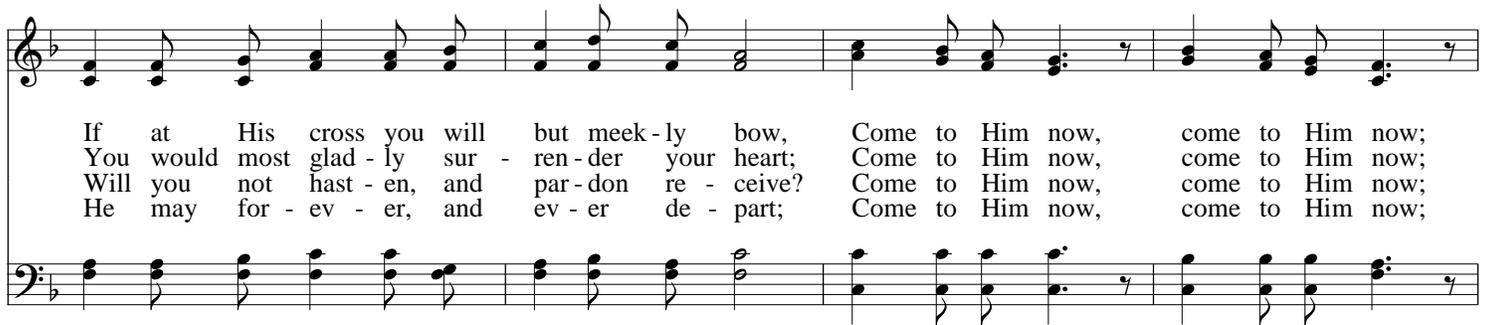

W. N. Ogborn, 1900

Henry Lake Gilmour

$\text{♩} = 100$

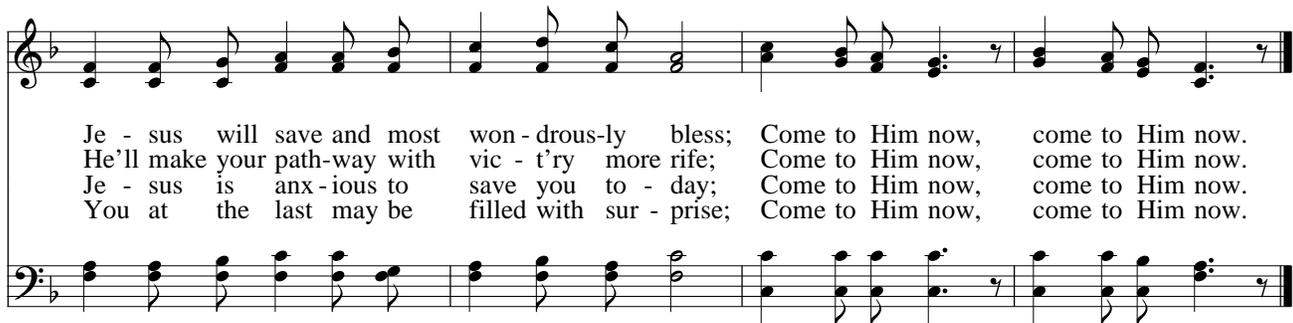

1. Je - sus in - vites you to feast with Him now; Come to Him now, come to Him now;
2. If you but knew of the joy He'll im - part, Come to Him now, come to Him now;
3. Je - sus is rea - dy sal - va - tion to give, Come to Him now, come to Him now;
4. If you re - fuse Him a place in your heart, Come to Him now, come to Him now;

If at His cross you will but meek - ly bow, Come to Him now, come to Him now;
You would most glad - ly sur - ren - der your heart; Come to Him now, come to Him now;
Will you not hast - en, and par - don re - ceive? Come to Him now, come to Him now;
He may for - ev - er, and ev - er de - part; Come to Him now, come to Him now;

Je - sus will par - don if you will con - fess; Je - sus will turn in - to joy your dis - tress;
He'll write your name in the Lamb's book of life; He'll drive a - way all your sor - row and strife;
Now while He calls you, O bro - ther, o - bey; Now while He's wait - ing, no long - er de - lay;
If His sad death on the cross you des - pise, Clos - ing your heart a - gainst love's sac - ri - fice,

Je - sus will save and most won - drous - ly bless; Come to Him now, come to Him now.
He'll make your path - way with vic - t'ry more rife; Come to Him now, come to Him now.
Je - sus is anx - ious to save you to - day; Come to Him now, come to Him now.
You at the last may be filled with sur - prise; Come to Him now, come to Him now.