

Come Again

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1867

William Batchelder Bradbury

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. Have you spent a plea - sant day? Come a - gain, come a - gain.
 2. Would you leave all sin - ful ways? Come a - gain, come a - gain.
 3. Words of com - fort you shall hear, Come a - gain, come a - gain;
 4. Come on ev - ery Sab - bath day, Come a - gain, come a - gain;

Fine

Would you learn the bet - ter way? Then come, come a - gain.
 Would you join our cheer - ful lays? Then come, come a - gain.
 From the Book we love so dear, Then come, come, a - gain;
 Ne - ver, ne - ver stay a - way, O come, come a - gain;

Here you'll find a wel - come true, Hearts that warm - ly beat for you;
 We are bound for Ca - naan's land, Will you come and join our band?
 Je - sus suf - fered on the tree, Je - sus died for you and me,
 Now im - prove the hours that fly, They are glid - ing swift - ly by,

D.C. al Fine

They will tell you what do do, O come, come a - gain.
 We will take you by the hand, O come, come a - gain.
 His di - sci - ple you may be, O come, come, a - gain.
 You are not too young to die, Then come, come a - gain.