

Come, Prodigal, Come

Mabel C. Frost, 1881

Ira David Sankey

$\text{♩} = 92$

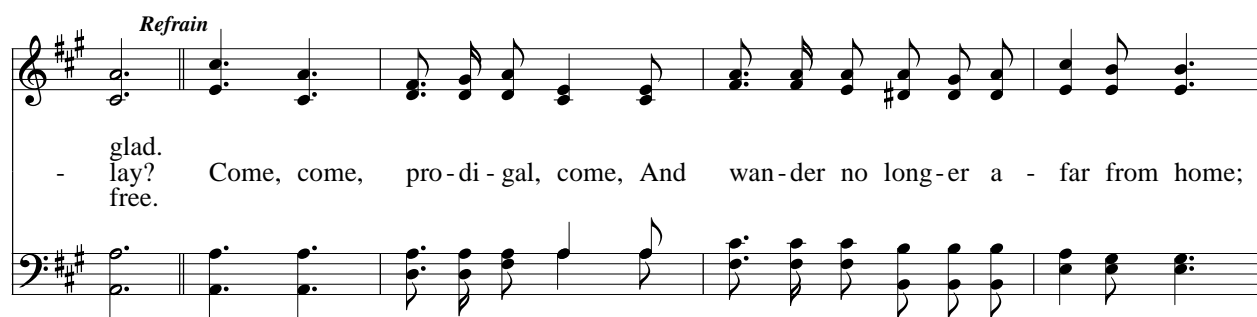

1. O soul in the far a - way coun - try, A - wea - ry, and fam - ished, and
2. A - rise! and come back to thy Fa - ther, He'll meet thee while yet on the
3. Al - though thou hast sinned a - gainst Heav - en, And weak and un - wor - thy may sad, There's rest in the home of the Fa - ther, His wel - come will make thy heart way; As - sured of His ten - der com - pas - sion, O why wilt thou long - er de - be; He of - fers thee full res - to - ra - tion, And par - don a - bun - dant and

Refrain

- glad.
lay? Come, come, pro - di - gal, come, And wan - der no long - er a - far from home;
free.

Come, come, pro - di - gal, come, A wel - come a - waits in thy Fa - ther's home.