1. Give me the dear old Bi-ble as my guide each day, Be it my help and com - fort on my
 2. Give me the dear old Bi-ble as my teach-er true, Pre - cious the words of prom-ise, old, yet
 3. Give me the dear old Bi-ble as a shin - ing light, That will il - lum - ine me and guide my 4. Give me the dear old Bi-ble when my life shall end, When in the vale of sha - dow it will pil - grim way, Un - til the gates of glo - ry I at last shall see, The dear old Bi - ble is good e - nough for ev - er new; On ev - ery page the love of God I plain - ly see, The dear old Bi - ble is good e - nough for steps a - right, Be it my sword to drive a - way the en - e - my, The dear old Bi - ble is good e - nough for com - fort lend; It shall en - dure for time and all e - ter - ni - ty, The dear old Bi - ble is good e - nough for me.

 me. Good e - nough for me, good e - nough for me, The dear old Bi - ble is good e - nough for me. yes is
 me.

me. good e - nough for me, good e - nough for me.
 good e - nough for me, is good e - nough for me.
