

Decision

Charles Austin Miles, 1922

♩=117

1. If path-less for - ests meet my view, I will not doubt or
2. No track-less plain my faith can dim, De - spite its vast do-
3. No sea too deep nor wide for me, With faith shall I em-
4. So an - y - where and ev - ery - where In plea - sure, woe or

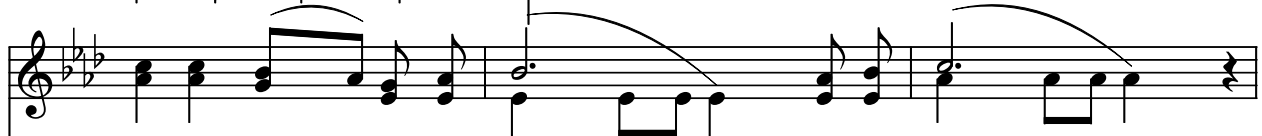

- fear; What has been done that I can do, My
- main; But with my faith made strong in Him, I'll
- bark; For He Who walked on Gal - i - lee Will pain; My cross a - lone I do not bear, Nor way shall be made clear. sing my glad re - frain. I've de - cid-ed, Lord, that I will safe - ly guide my bark.

Refrain

do I trust in vain.

fol-low Thee, An-y - where, an-y - where,
An-y - where, an-y - where

O-ver the land or o-ver the sea, It mat-ters not where it may be, For I've de-cid-ed, Lord, to fol-low Thee, An - y - where.

