

Do You See the Hebrew Captive Kneeling?

Philip Paul Bliss, 1876

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. Do you see the He - brew cap - tive kneel - ing, At
2. Do not fear to tread the fier - y fur - nace, Nor
3. Child - ren of the liv - ing God, take cour - age, Your morn - ing, noon and night, to pray? In his cham - ber he re - mem - bers shrink the li - on's den, to share; For the God of Dan - iel will de - great de - liv - 'rance sweet - ly sing. Set your fac - es t'ward the hill of

Refrain
Zi - on, Though in ex - ile far a - way.
- liv - er, He will send His an - gel there. Are your win - dows o - pen toward Je - Zi - on, Thence to hail your com - ing King.

- ru - sa - lem, Though as cap - tives here, a "lit - tle while" we stay? For the com - ing of the King in His glo - ry Are you watch - ing day by day?