

Easter, Joyous Easter

Flora Kirkland, 1905

Carl Harold Lowden

♩ = 100

1. East-er, joy-ous East-er, ho - ly hap - py time! Bells ring out their mess-age, joy in
 2. Voic-es in a gar - den, near a rock-hewn tomb, Gra - cious heav'n-ly voic-es, cheer - ing
 3. O - ther voic-es e - cho, through the East-er chime One a - bove all o - thers, speaks with ev - ery chime; Sweet - ly through their mu - sic, faint an e - cho swells, earth's dark gloom; Voic - es from the glo - ry, sent from thence to tell, pow'r sub - lime; Ten - der words of com - fort, peace and love pro - found,

Refrain

Voic-es seem to min - gle with the bells. (Glad East - er bells.)
 Je - sus lives a - gain! Im - man - u - el! (Im - man - u - el!) Seek ye not the liv - ing O'er the world to - day His words re - sound. (His words re - sound.)

here a - mong the dead; Christ the Lord is ris-en, ris-en as He said; Bless-èd re-as-sur-ance, gone the wear-y night, Christ is ris - en! East-er breaks in floods of light!