

The Gospel Train

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1898

George Crawford Hugg

♩=100

1. There's a train that runs from the earth to the sky, And ev - ery one may ride if they
2. There is naught to pay for a ride on this train, For Christ has paid the fare for us
3. This train makes no noise as it runs thro' the land, For it tra - vels on the road-bed of 4. This train has nev - er been wrecked on the road, But land - ed all her souls in the will, It starts from that fount-ain that ne - ver runs dry, And it stops on the heav - en - ly all, The poor and the need - y, the blind and the lame, Can all go, if on Christ they will love, Its crew is com-posed of a heav-en - ly band, And its motor pow'r is faith from asky; It can take all the world at a sin-gle load, Get on board, bid earth's tri - als good-

Refrain

hill.
call. O sin-ner, get on board of the Gos-pel train, For it runs straight a - head, nev - er back; It starts on the sche-dule 'midst the wind or the rain, And it nev-er runs off of the track.
- bove.
- bye.