

Hallelujah! Christ Is Risen (Hall)

B. H. Hall, 1906

Joseph W. Lerman

♩ = 110

1. Day of won - der, day of glad - ness, Hail thy ev - er
 2. In the tri - umph of this ho - ur, Ju - bi - lant shall
 3. Ev - ery peo - ple, ev - ery na - tion, Soon shall hear the glo - rious light! Gone is sor - row, gone is sad - ness, End - ed is the swell the song; Un - to Je - sus, hon - or, pow - er, Bless - ing, vic - to - glad - some sound; Joy - ous tid - ings of sal - va - tion, Borne to earth's re -

Girls

gloom - y night! List - en to the an - gel's sto - ry— Cast a - way all
 - ry be - long. Scat - tered are the clouds of er - ror, Sin and hell are
 - mot - est bound. Then shall rise in tones ex - cell - ing, Praise for grace so

All

dark and dread; Give to God, the Fa - ther, glo - ry! "Christ is ris - en cap - tive led; E'en the grave is free from ter - ror, "Christ is ris - en free - ly shed; And the East - er hymn be swell - ing, "Christ is ris - en

Refrain

from the dead!"
 from the dead!" Hal - le - lu - jah! hal - le - lu - jah! Christ is ris - en,
 from the dead!"

as He said; Hal - le - lu - jah! hal - le - lu - jah! Christ is ris - en from the dead!