

He Has Given Us His Promises

Susan Helen Peterson, 1999

William Augustine Ogden, 1887

$\text{♩} = 110$

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of three systems, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a bass line (bass clef). The tempo is marked as quarter note = 110. The lyrics are arranged in five numbered lines, with some lines starting with a hyphen to indicate continuation from the previous line.

1. God's great power di - vine now has giv - en us All we
2. To your faith add good - ness and know - ledge true, Then add
3. If you have these traits in in - creas - ing store, They will
4. An - y per - son lack - ing these qual - i - ties Is near -
5. So be ea - ger now; make your call - ing sure. If you need for life and true god - li - ness, Through our self - con - trol, per - se - ver - ance, too. Then add

- keep you from un - pro - duc - tive lore. You'll ef -
- sight - ed, blind, and he does not see. He's for - do these things, you will fall no more. You'll be know - ing Him who has call - èd us And for god - li - ness, kind - ness, then add, too, Love to

- fect - ive be know - ing Christ our Lord, Be - cause
- got - ten he from his sin is free And that wel - comed rich - ly by Christ our Lord A - nd

Refrain

His own glo - ry giv - en prom-is - es.
 all, con - firm - ing God's great prom-is - es.
 God has give - n us His prom-is - es. He has giv - en us His God has giv - en us His prom-is - es.
 gain His king - dom, through His prom-is - es.

prom - is - es, Ve - ry great and pre - cious prom - is - es, So we'll be like Him, cleansed from all past sin. Yes, our God has give - en us His prom-is - es.

