

He Is Knocking

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1920

Bentley DeForest Ackley

1. He is knock-ing, soft-ly knock-ing at the door; Let Him in, O let Him
 2. He is call - ing, gent-ly call - ing to you now; Let Him in, O let Him
 3. He is wait - ing, kind-ly wait - ing still for you; Let Him in, O let Him
 O let Him in,

in; He will bring you rich-est bless-ing ev - er - more; Let Him in; See the plead-ing dew of mer - cy on His brow, Let Him in; Give Him wel - come, joy - ful wel - come, warm and true; Let Him O let Him in;

in, O let Him in!
 in, O let Him in! Knock - ing, knock - ing!
 in, O let Him in!
 O let Him in, O let Him in;

O - pen wide the door, Let Him in to - day, ask Him in to stay;
 O let Him in, Ask Him in, He's Knock-ing, knock-ing! Life He will re-store, When you o - pen wide the door.

bolt - ed door.
