

He Was Nailed to the Cross for Me

Frederick Arthur Graves, 1906

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. What a won - der-ful, won - der-ful Sav - ior, Who would die on the cross for
 2. Thus He le - ft His heav-en - ly glo - ry, To ac - comp-lish His Fa - ther's
 3. He was wound-ed for o - ur trans - gress-ions, And He car - ried our sor - rows, 4. So He ga - ve His li - fe for o - thers In Re - deem-ing this world from me! Free-ly shed-ding His pre - cious life - blood, That the sin - ner might be made plan; He was born of the vir - gin Ma - ry, Took up - on Him the form of too; He's the Heal-er of ev - ry sick-ness, This He came to the world to sin, And He's gone to pre-pare a man-sion, That at last we may en - ter

Refrain

free.
 man. He was nailed to the cross for me, He was nailed to the cross for do. He was nailed to the cross, He was in.

me; On the cross cru-ci-fied for me He died; He was nailed to the cross for me.
 nailed to the cross,