1. Let us sing a song that will cheer us by the way, In a little while we’re going home; And no tears shall fall in that city bright and fair, In a little while we’re going home.

2. We will do the work that our hands may find to do, In a little while we’re going home; And may loving hearts spread an influence sweet! In a little while we’re going home.

3. We will smooth the path for some weary, way-worn feet, In a little while we’re going home; And may loving hearts spread an influence sweet! In a little while we’re going home.

4. There’s a rest beyond, there’s relief from every care, In a little while we’re going home; For the night will end in the everlasting day, In a little while we’re going home.

Refrain

We shall cross the billow’s round an influence sweet! In a little while we’re going home. In a little while, In a little while, We shall cross the billow’s round an influence sweet! In a little while we’re going home.

foam; We shall meet at last, When the storm-y winds are past, In a little while we're going home.
