

If Christ Should Come Tonight

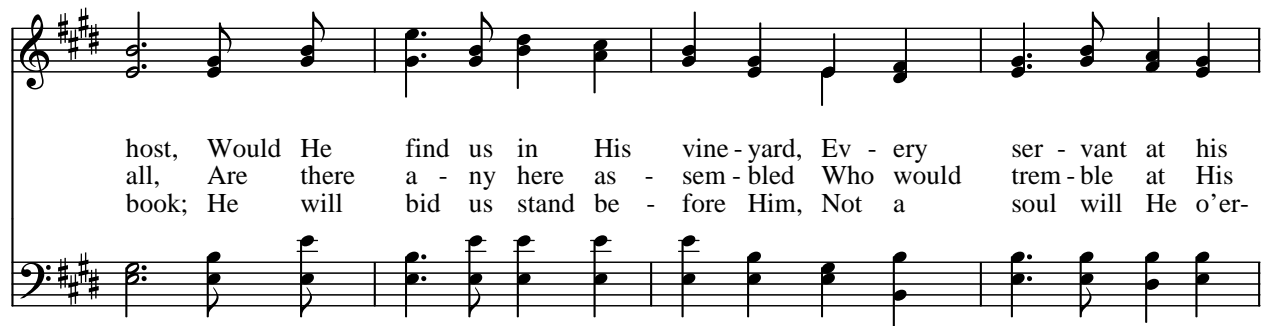

Harriet E. Jones, 1897

J. Howard Entwisle

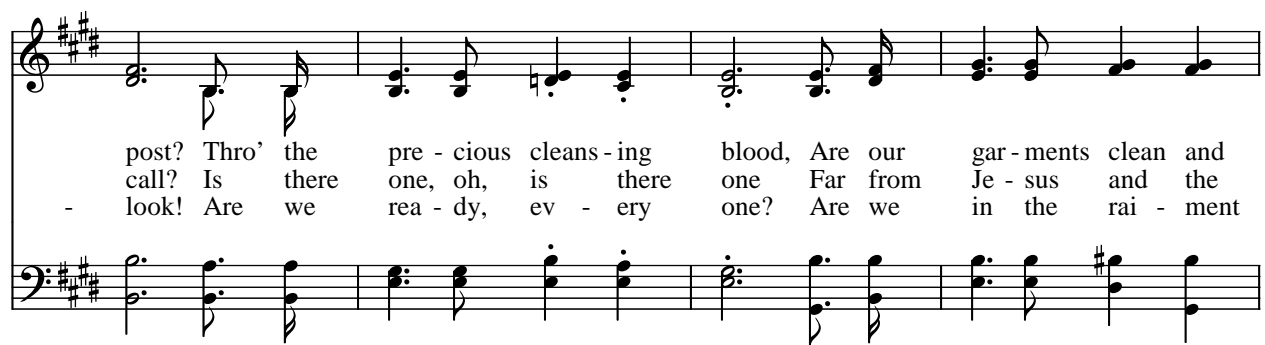

$\text{♩} = 117$

1. If our Lord should come to - night, With the bright an - gel - ic
2. If our Lord should come to - night, Come as King and Judge of 3. Christ as King and Judge will come, 'Tis re - cord - ed in His host, Would He find us in His vine - yard, Ev - ery ser - vant at his all, Are there a - ny here as - sem - bled Who would trem - ble at His book; He will bid us stand be - fore Him, Not a soul will He o'er-post? Thro' the pre - cious cleans - ing blood, Are our gar - ments clean and call? Is there one, oh, is there one Far from Je - sus and the

- look! Are we rea - dy, ev - ery one? Are we in the rai - ment white? Are we dwell - ing in the light, Should our Lord ap - pear to - light, Un - re - pent - ant, lost, un - done, If the Judge should come to - white, If the Judge of all man - kind Should ap - pear this ve - ry

Refrain

- night? Are we watch - ing, are we wait - ing In the rai - ment pure and
 - night? watch-ing, watch-ing, wait-ing, wait-ing, In the rai - ment night?

white? Should we joy at His ap - pear-ing If our Lord should come to-pure and white?

- night?
 to-night?