

I'll Count My Blessings

Carrie Elizabeth Ellis Breck, 1901

George Blackburn Holsinger

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. I lift my heart to - day in praise To Him Who loves me so, Whose
2. I thank Him for un - cloud-ed skies— For love be - yond my ken— That
3. I go to meet a - no - ther year, With faith no doubt can dim, God mer - cy crown - eth all my days, And makes my cup o'er - flow. O when my path in sha - dow lies, The sun - shine comes a - gain. I reign - eth, and I will not fear, But trust my way with Him. Then have I loved Him as I should For all His bless - ings free? Praise thank Him for the hopes ful - filled— For ev - ery an - swered plea, That if that way be bright or dark, Let peace un - shak - en be! And

Refrain

God Who giv - eth naught but good, For He is good to me! I'll count my though life was not all I willed, My God is good to me! let me, like the soar - ing lark, Sing "God is good to me!" I'll count my ma - ny bless - ings— Count them o'er and o'er— I'll tell my Fa - ther's bless - ings— I will count them o'er and o'er—good-ness— I will love Him more, I'll count my bless - ings, love Him more and more I'll count my ma-ny bless-ings, O how boun-ti - ful and free— Yet I can nev-er count them all— So good is God to boun - ti - ful and free—me!