

If Tonight Should End the World

James B. Pennington, before 1916

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The tempo is marked as quarter note = 95. The lyrics are arranged in three systems, each with four lines of music. The first system contains three verses of lyrics. The second system continues the lyrics. The third system contains the 'Refrain' section, which is repeated twice. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines.

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. In God's Word it is re - cord - ed That this world will not en - dure; Then while
2. O'er this quest - ion do you pon - der, As the days pass swift - ly by? Have you
3. See the hands once torn and bleed - ing On the cross of Cal - va - ry, Reach - ing time is yet af - ford - ed Make your hope of Hea - ven sure; For the gained an in - terest yon - der, Where the soul will ne - ver die? If the out with gen - tle plead - ing; Oh, poor sin - ner, 'tis for thee; Come, ac - stars, be - fore the morn - ing, From their or - bits may be hurled, And the last trump should be sound - ed, And the blood stained ban - ner furled, Would it

- cept this great sal - va - tion, Ere to judg - ment you are hurled; Slight you moon may send a warn - ing That to - night will end the world. bring you grief un - bound - ed If to - night should end the world? If to - not this in - vi - ta - tion, For to - night may end the world.

Refrain

- night should end the world, If to - night should end the world, Would your soul a - drift be dri-ven? Or would you set sail for Hea-ven, If to-

- night should end the world?