

Into the Depths of the Sea

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1908

William Howard Doane

♩ = 100

1. Re - joice ye with sing - ing who trust in the Lord: Go 2. O seek Him be - liev - ing the word of His grace, And
 3. The bur - den so heav - y, at Cal - va - ry fell, For 4. Then glad be our serv - ice; to give day by day, Love's tell His sal - va - tion with hap - py ac - cord; He saith in His mer - cy to find in the Sav - ior, the light of His face; There shin - eth His Gos - pel, the Christ is our ran - som, and now all is well; Yea, brok - en the bond - age, hence - will - ing al - le - giance to all He may say; We'll sing in His glo - ry, there you and to me, "Your sins shall be cast in - to the depths of the sea."

Refrain

 - sha - dows will flee; Our sins shall be cast in - to the depths of the sea. In - to the
 - forth we are free; Our sins shall be cast in - to the depths of the sea.
 ev - er to be, Our sins shall be cast in - to the depths of the sea.

sea, Cal - va - ry's sea, His love is an o - cean, so
 In - to the sea, Cal - va - ry's sea, bound-less and free; In-to the sea, Cal-va-ry's sea, Our

In-to the sea, Cal-va-ry's sea, sins shall be cast in-to the depths of the sea.