

Jonah and the Whale

W. E. S.

W. F. I.

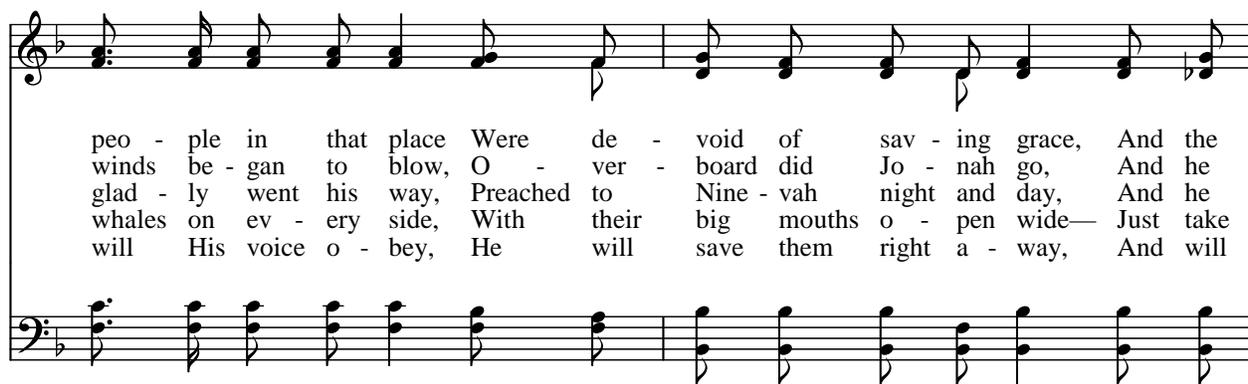

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. In the Bi - ble we are told Of a pro - phet who was called To a 2. Then this pro - phet forth was sent That old Nine - vah might re - pent, But in -
3. In the cold and brin - y deep Tears of grief did Jo - nah weep, And the 4. Oh, some peo - ple don't be - lieve That a whale could him re - ceive. But that
5. Ma - ny souls are tossed a - bout By the whales of fear and doubt, But the ci - ty that was steeped in aw - ful sin; All the

- stead of that to Tar - shish he set sail; Oh! the big fish threw him out up - on the shore; Then he does not make my song at all untr - ues; There are Sav - ior wants to take them by the hand. If they peo - ple in that place Were de - void of sav - ing grace, And the winds be - gan to blow, O - ver - board did Jo - nah go, And he glad - ly went his way, Preached to Nine - vah night and day, And he whales on ev - ery side, With their big mouths o - pen wide— Just take will His voice o - bey, He will save them right a - way, And will pro - phet seemed a - fraid to en - ter in.

Refrain

 found a mer - cy-seat in - side the whale. did not care to back-slide an - y more. O - ver there, o - ver there, In that care, my friend, or one will swal - low you. guide them safe - ly to the prom - ised land.

land bright and fair, Oh, he'll tell me all a - bout it o - ver there; On the hal - le - lu - jah strand I'll take Jo - nah by the hand, And he'll tell me all a - bout it o - ver there.

