

Mighty to Save

Charles Collier, 1920

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. Joy - ful news to all man - kind, Je - sus is might - y to save;
2. Though as scar - let be the stains, Je - sus is might - y to save;
3. Fear - ful soul, dis - card thy fears, Je - sus is might - y to save;
4. Since His blood for thee was shed, Je - sus is might - y to save;

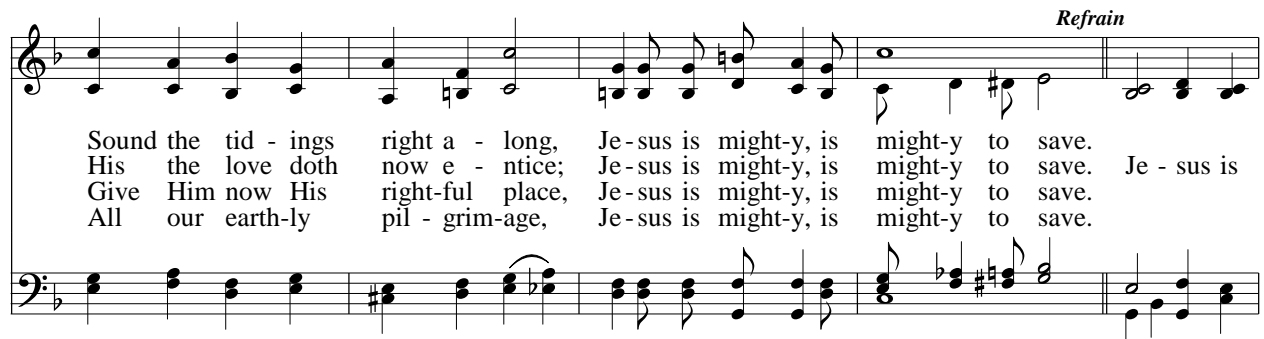

All who seek shall sure - ly find Je - sus is might - y to save.
Though as steel the bind - ing chains, Je - sus is might - y to save.
Seek - er, haste to dry thy tears, Je - sus is might - y to save.
Since He lives who once was dead, Je - sus is might - y to save.

Sin - ners may re - lin - quish wrong, Fal - tering hearts may now be strong;
His the glor - ious sa - crif - ice; His the blood which paid the price;
With as - sur - ance seek His face, Doubt no more His love and grace,
While in con - flict we en - gage, When the storms a - round shall rage,

Refrain

Sound the tid - ings right a - long, Je - sus is might - y, is might - y to save.
His the love doth now e - ntice; Je - sus is might - y, is might - y to save. Je - sus is Give Him now His right - ful place, Je - sus is might - y, is might - y to save.
All our earth - ly pil - grim - age, Je - sus is might - y, is might - y to save.

might-y to save, Je - sus is might-y to save; From the ut-ter-most, to the ut-ter-most,

Might-y to save!
