

Let Someone Else

J. A. Sutherland, 1921

Beatrice W. Sutherland

J=113

1. "Let some-one else!" you oft - en say, When asked to serve the
 2. "Let some-one else speak forth the word To save a soul from
 3. "Let some-one else go forth," you say, To lands be - yond the
 4. Oh, ne - ver let your lips a - gain Those thought-less words re-

Lord; And "some-one else," when life is o'er, Will reap a rich resin"; That "some-one else," when Je - sus comes, A crown of life will seas; While you re - main at home and take Your com - fort and your
 - peat; But pray that grace to you be giv'n To serve at Je - sus'

Refrain

- ward. Oh, some-one else is doi-ng the work That you for God should do; And win. Oh, some-one else is doi-ng the work That you for God should do; And ease. Oh, some-one else is doi-ng the work That you for God should do; And feet. Then no one else will d - o the work That you for God should do; And some-one else will be wear-ing the crown That God had meant for you.

 some-one else will be wear-ing the crown That God had meant for you.
 some-one else will be wear-ing the crown That God had meant for you.
 no one else will be wear-ing the crown That God has kept for you.