

Let Every Lamp Be Burning Bright

Franklin Edson Belden, 1886

$\text{♩} = 103$

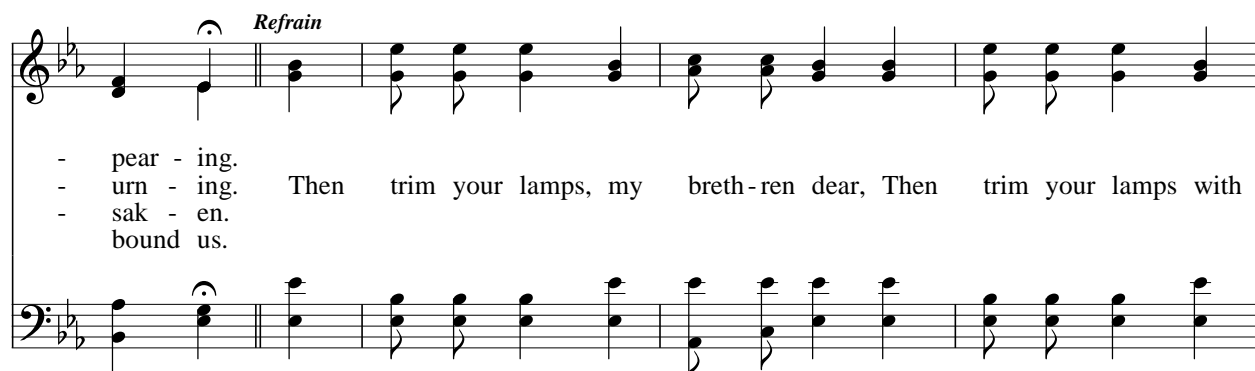

1. Let ever - y lamp be burn - ing bright, The dark - est hour is
2. Though thou - sands calm - ly slum - ber on, The last great mess - age
3. His Word our lamp, His truth our guide, We can - not be mis -
4. Then let good works with faith ap - pear, To help the world a - near - ing; The dark - est hour of earth's long night, Be - fore the Lord's ap - spurn - ing, We'll rest our liv - ing faith up - on His prom - ise of ret -

- tak - en; Though dan - gers rise on ever - y side, We shall not be for -
- round us; O - be - dience brings the bless - ing near When faith has firm - ly

Refrain

- pear - ing.
- urn - ing. Then trim your lamps, my breth - ren dear, Then trim your lamps with
- sak - en.
bound us.

god - ly fear; The Mas - ter's com - ing draw - eth near, Let ever - y lamp be burn - ing.