

Made Whole

John W. Beebe, 1890

William James Kirkpatrick

♩ = 92

1. The press was great, the throng was wild, And I, a sin - ner
2. "Who touched Me?" hear the dear Lord say! The throng was awed, the
3. "Thou see - est all these peo - ple, Lord, And yet Thou seek - est
4. "Go thou in peace," O hear Him say; From all Thy plague be all de - filed, How could I reach my Sav-ior? Reach Him I must, with-mass gave way, And I stood near my Sav-ior; "Who touched Me?" came the by Thy word To find who touched Thee, Sav-ior?" 'Twas thus that His dis-healed this day; Oh, what a bless - ed Sav-ior! To heal the bo - dy,

- out de - lay; And in the press, with fear, dis - may, I, tremb-ling, sought my gra - cious word; New life-blood thro' my be - ing stirred, For I had touched my
- ci - ples said, But I be - fore Him bowed my head; I knelt be - fore my save the soul, The vil - est of the vile make whole, Oh, how I love my

Refrain

Sav-ior. His words were full of com-fort, They cheered my wea - ry soul; For Sav-ior.
Sav-ior.
Sav-ior. His words are full of com-fort, Oh, how they cheer my soul! By

I had touched His gar-ment, His grace had made me whole; For I had touched His faith I touch His gar-ment, He makes me clean and whole; By faith I touch His gar-ment, His grace had made me whole.

gar-ment, He makes me clean and whole.