

The Meeting Over There

Sarah C. Goughnour, 1900

R. C. Ward

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. We will meet our loved ones dear Where the crys - tal riv - ers flow, If we're
2. For we read that Je - sus said: "I will now pre - pare a home, Where the
3. Then we'll sing for - ev - er - more, 'Round the great and daz - zling throne, There all faith - ful while we're here, And the dear Re - deem - er know. There we'll wed - ding feast is spread, And the wea - ry ones may come." There we'll part - ings will be o'er, In our Fa - ther's house at home. There we'll see the crys - tal riv - er, And the streets all paved with see the crys - tal riv - er, And the streets all paved with gold, There we'll see the crys - tal riv - er, And the gold; Then we'll sing re - demp - tion's streets all paved with gold. Then we'll sing re - demp - tion's sto - ry, Where there's sto - ry, Where there's joy and love un - told.

Refrain

joy and love un - told, Then we'll sing re - demp - tion's sto - ry, Where there's joy and love un - told.