

Memories of Earth

William Paton Mackay, 1878

James McGranahan

♩=98

1. When we reach our Fa - ther's dwell - ing, On the strong e - ter - nal hills, And our
2. When the paths of prayer and du - ty, And af - flic - tion all are trod, And we
3. And the way by which He brought us, All the griev - ings that He bore, All the praise to Him is swell - ing Who the vast cre - a - tion fills, Shall we then re - call the wake and see the beau - ty Of our Sav - ior and our God, Shall we then re - call the pa - tient love that taught us, We'll re - mem - ber ev - er - more, And His rest will be the sad - ness, And the clouds that hung so dim, When our hearts were turned from sto - ry Of our mor - tal griefs and tears, When on earth we sought the dear - er, As we think of wea - ry ways, And His light will be the hard - ness, And our feet from paths of sin? Yes, we sure - ly shall re - mem - ber, And His glo - ry Wrest - ling oft with doubts and fears? clear - er As we muse on cloud - y days.

Refrain

grace we'll free - ly own, For the love so strong and ten - der, That re - deemed and brought us home.