

Missionary Prayer Hymn

Benjamin Burke Beall, 1903

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. Our Fa - ther in Heav'n, On Thee we do call; Thy
 2. For In - dia we pray, Where mill - ions are taught To
 3. For Chi - na we pray, O hast - en the time When
 4. May Af - ri - ca's name No long - er be "dark," Wide
 5. From east un - to west, From north un - to south, May

Son Thou hast given, A Sav - ior for all; But fol - low the way Which e - vil hath wrought; We, bright as the day The Gos - pel will shine; When spread by the flame From mar - tyr - dom's spark; May na - tions Thee bless With heart and with mouth; Then, thou - sands are dy - ing, Who know not the Lord, For know - ing the Sav - ior, Whose Word is at hand, O par - ents and child - ren On Je - sus shall call, When Christ - ians en - dea - vor To fur - nish the light, Both Je - sus re - turn - ing To call home His own, Brands them we are pray - ing, O send them Thy Word.

 God, may we la - bor, To har - vest their land. The call is all that is hin - dering Be - fore Him shall fall.
 now and for - ev - er Es - tab - lish Thy sight.
 plucked from the burn - ing Shall cir - cle His throne.

Refrain

great, but in Thy strength We hast - en
The call is great, but in Thy strength forth, most gra - cious Lord, For thou - sands We hast - en forth, most gra - cious Lord, die each day and hour, Who know not For thou - sands die Each day and hour,

Thee, O send Thy Word.
Who know not Thee, O send Thy Word.