

Oh, for a Heart Whiter Than Snow

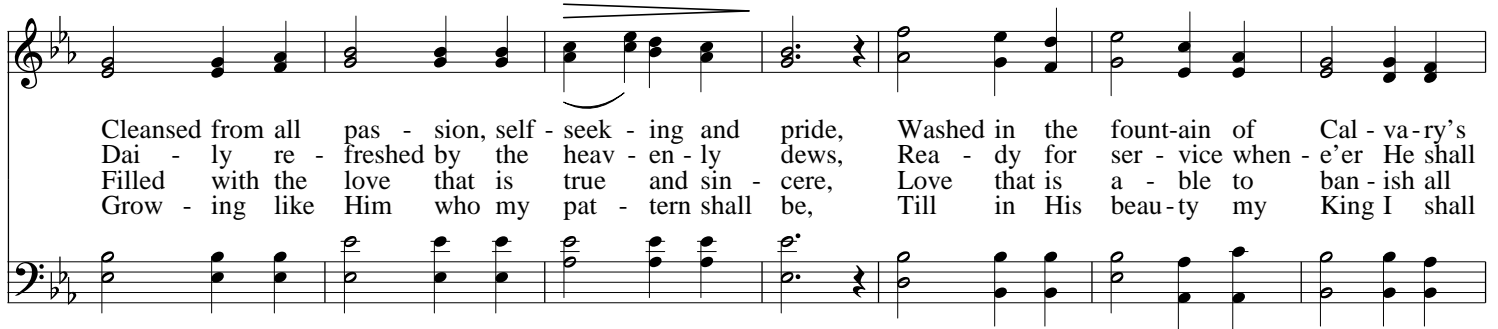

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1902

William James Kirkpatrick

$\text{♩} = 130$

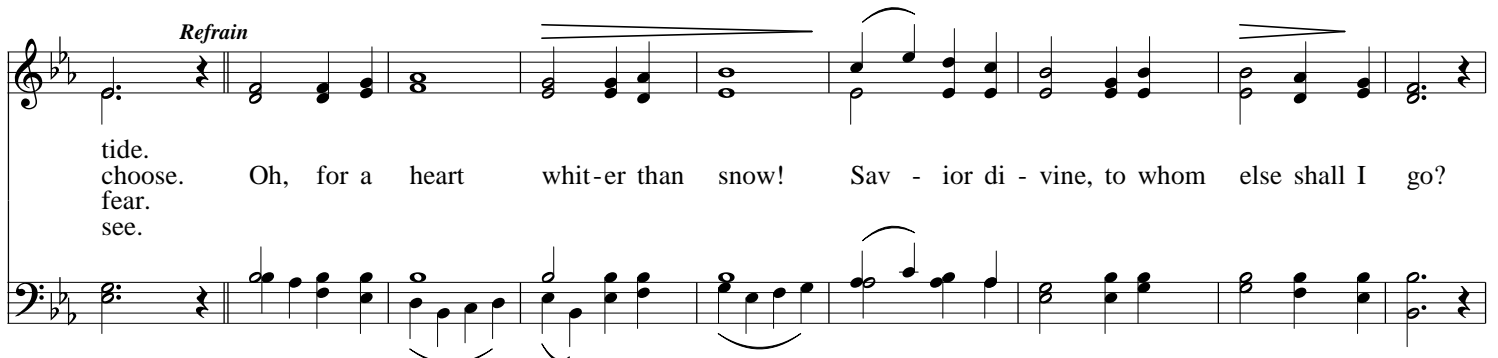

1. Oh, for a heart that is whit - er than snow, Kept, ev - er kept 'neath the life giv - ing flow,
2. Oh, for a heart that is whit - er than snow! Calm in the peace that He loves to be - stow;
3. Oh, for a heart that is whit - er than snow! With the pure flame of the Spir - it a - glow;
4. Oh, for a heart that is whit - er than snow! Then in His grace and His know - ledge to grow,

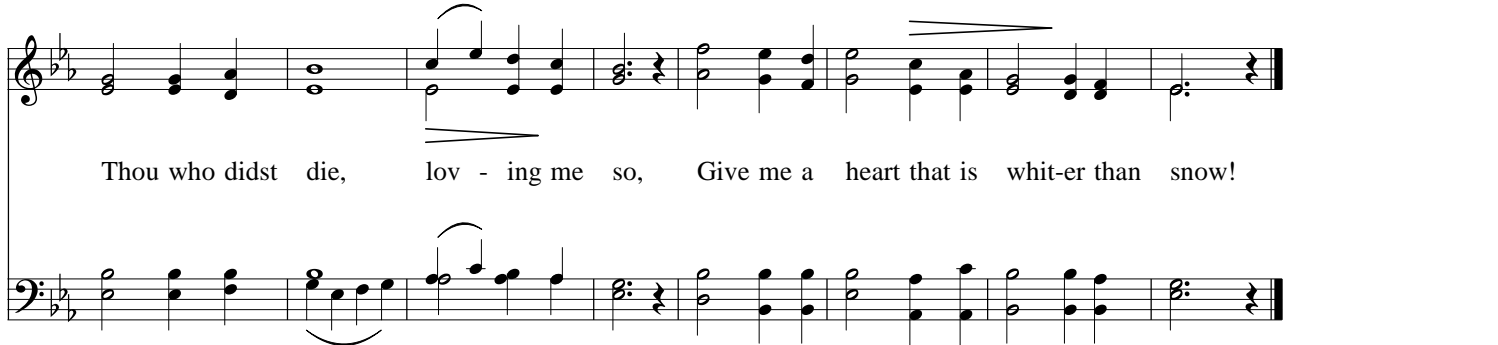

Cleansed from all pas - sion, self - seek - ing and pride, Washed in the fount - ain of Cal - va - ry's Dai - ly re - freshed by the heav - en - ly dews, Rea - dy for ser - vice when - e'er He shall Filled with the love that is true and sin - cere, Love that is a - ble to ban - ish all Grow - ing like Him who my pat - tern shall be, Till in His beau - ty my King I shall tide.

Refrain

choose. Oh, for a heart whit - er than snow! Sav - ior di - vine, to whom else shall I go?
fear.
see.

Thou who didst die, lov - ing me so, Give me a heart that is whit - er than snow!