Only Remembered

Horatius Bonar, 1870
Ira David Sankey, 1891

1. Fading away like the stars of the morning, Losing their light in the glorious sun? Thus would we pass from the earth and its toiling,

2. Shall we be missed though by others succeeded, Reap-ing the fields we in spring-time have sown? No, for the sowers may pass from their labors,

3. On-ly the truth that in life we have spoke-n, On-ly the seed that on earth we have sown; These shall pass on-ward when we are for-gotten,

Refrain

On-ly re-membered by what we have done.

On-ly re-membered by what they have done. On-ly re-membered, Fruits of the harvest and what we have done.

on-ly re-membered, On-ly re-membered by what we have done;

Thus would we pass from the earth and its toiling, On-ly re-membered by what we have done.
