

On That Great Day of Judgment

Anna Printzlau Bowen, 1918

Daniel Brink Towner

$\text{♩} = 105$

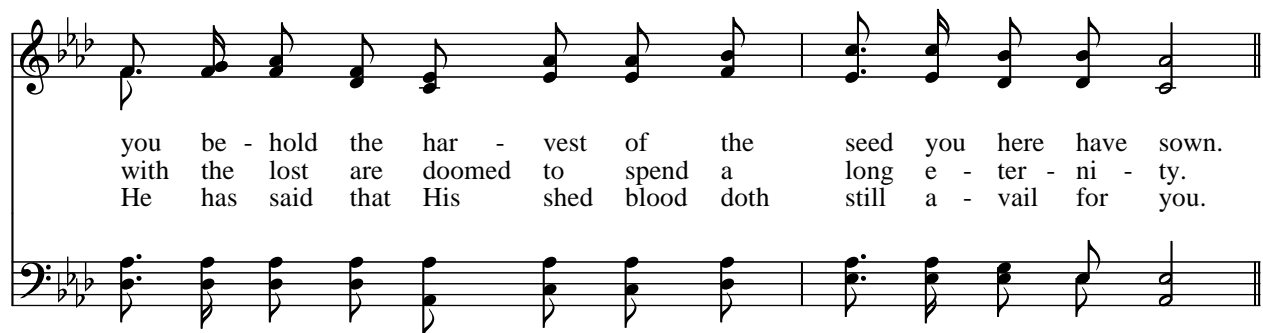

1. On that great day of judgment, what will you say? When
2. On that great day of judgment, what will you do? If
3. On that great day of judgment, no fear I'll know; By all the books are opened, and none can hide away; When Je - sus tells the Fa - ther that you He ne - ver knew; And grace I was de - liv - ered on Cal - v'ry long a - go; O ev - ery hid - den se - cret by the Judge will be made known, And you're re - fused a fleet - ing glimpse of heav'n - ly joy to see, But hast - en while there yet is time God's prom - ise to prove true, For you be - hold the har - vest of the seed you here have sown.

with the lost are doomed to spend a long e - ter - ni - ty.
He has said that His shed blood doth still a - vail for you.

Refrain

“Ren-der un-to Cæ-sar the things that are Cæ-sar’s,” But give un-to God His own; For the great day of judg-ment is com-ing soon, When ev-ery knee shall bow be-fore the great white throne.

