

Our Rally Song

Harry Crosscup, 1903

George Crawford Hugg

$\text{♩} = 100$

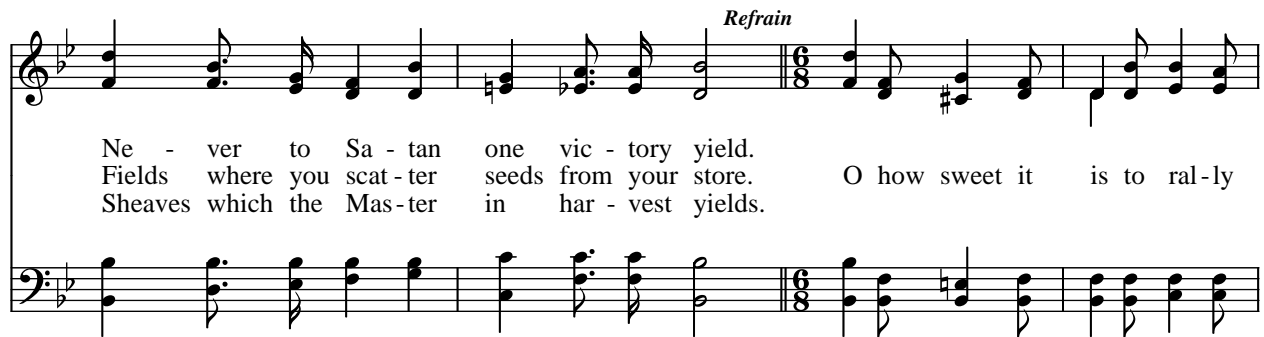

1. Sol - diers for Je - sus, press on to - day, Fear not sin's ter - rors,
2. You who are plant - ing seeds on the field, Plant deep the word - seed,
3. Reap - ers for Je - sus, go forth to - day; See, grains are nod - ding—

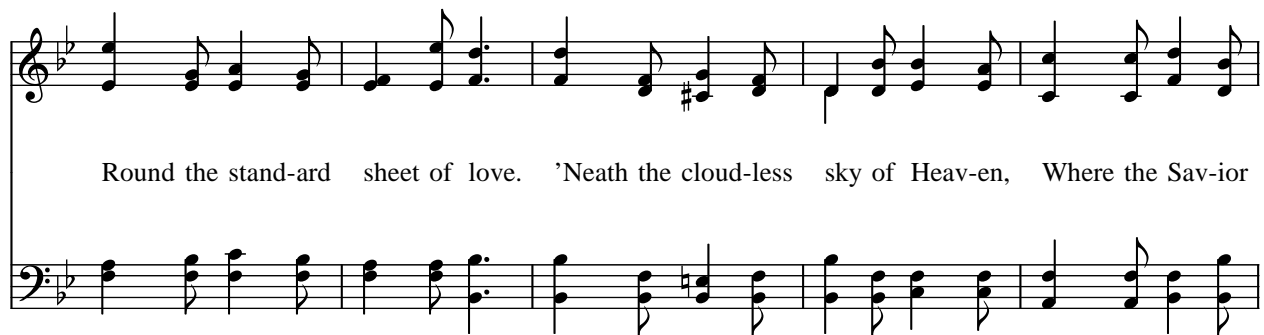

cease not to pray; Keep bright the ar - mor, hold fast the shield, it God will shield From birds of e - vil who ho - ver o'er go now, we pray; Sharp - en the sick - le, bring from the fields

Refrain

Ne - ver to Sa - tan one vic - tory yield.
Fields where you scat - ter seeds from your store. O how sweet it is to ral - ly Sheaves which the Mas - ter in har - vest yields.

Round the stand - ard sheet of love. 'Neath the cloud - less sky of Heav - en, Where the Sav - ior stands a - bove! In the pre - sence of the Fa - ther And His ho - ly an - gels bright Heav - en's smile is on its sol - diers As they bat - tle for the right.
