Edith Sanford Tillotson, 1907

Grant Colfax Tullar

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Raise the song, raise the song, sound it far and near, Let the notes of rap - ture swell
2. Raise the song, raise the song, o - ver land and sea, So our mu - sic may im - part shine
3. Raise the song, raise the song, see the ban - ners sway! May they ev - er bright - ly shine

With the joy - ful words they tell; Raise the song, raise the song, hap - py an - thems bring,
Joy re - newed in ev - ery heart; Raise the song, raise the song, set the e - choes free,
Glow - ing with a light di - vine; Raise the song, raise the song, joy - ful an - thems bring,

Refrain
Tell - ing all who hear the call, the Lord is king.
Words of praise, thro' all our days, our song shall be. Bring, mer - ri - ly bring, voic - es and Mu - sic sweet must ev - er greet the Lord, our king.

hearts to join the song, Sing, mer - ri - ly sing, rais - ing a chor - us full and strong;

Ring, mer - ri - ly ring, e - cho - ing bells from Heav - en ring! Joy we raise in a song of praise to Christ our king.
